Notice to Applicant

1. Every dog over 3 months of age (other than those exempt pursuant to section 33 of the Act) must be registered.

2. Payment of the relevant registration fee and any fee for the late payment of the registration fee must accompany this application.

3. Registration remains in force until 30 June next and may be renewed for further periods of 12 months.

4. The Registrar may refuse to register a dog if satisfied that the dog is kept in a kennel for a purpose in connection with a business that should, in the opinion of the Registrar, be registered under section 35 of the Act.

5. The Council is required to maintain a public registrar containing information regarding dogs it registers. The information sought in this form which has been marked with an * will be included in the public register.

I hereby apply for registration of the dog(s) or cat(s) described above in my name, pursuant to section 3 of the Dog and Cat Management Act 1995 ("the Act") and certify I am 16 years of over.
