1. Introduction

This Register contains a record of all powers and functions made by the Council to the Chief Executive Officer through various Acts such as the Local Government Act 1999, Development Act 1993, and the South Australian Public Health Act 2011, and through Policies adopted by Council and resolutions of Council that require delegation to ensure lawful decision making.

The Chief Executive Officer may delegate (sub-delegate) a power or function vested or conferred in or on the Chief Executive Officer by Council.

The Delegations Register incorporates the sub-delegations made by the Chief Executive Officer.

All officers should be familiar with the sub-delegations attached to their position.

What is a delegation of Authority?

Councils have certain duties which they must perform, and certain powers which they may exercise, pursuant to the Local Government Act 1999 and through other Acts such as the Development Act 1993, the Food Act 2001, and the Work Health and Safety Act 2012 etc.

It is not practical or efficient for the Council, as a body of elected members, to perform the many functions or undertake the many activities that are required in the day to day administration of the Council's roles and functions.

Section 44 of the Local Government Act 1999 provides that Council may, amongst other things, delegate a power or function to the Chief Executive Officer, who may then sub-delegate these powers and functions to specified officers in the organization as considered appropriate, unless prohibited by the specific Act or instrument. That is, a delegation may be subject to conditions or limitations set by the Council and/or the Chief Executive Officer.

Delegation and sub-delegation processes are a key element in effective governance and management of the Council and ensure that officers are provided with the legal authority to undertake various duties and exercise powers in accordance with relevant legislation.

All delegations made by the Council can be revoked at any time and do not, except in limited circumstances, prevent the Council from acting in a matter itself. Also, an officer to whom a delegation has been made may choose not to exercise that delegation and bring a matter direct to Council for direction.

Delegations to the Chief Executive Officer also extend to the person appointed to act in this position during absences of the Chief Executive Officer. Any conditions or limitations placed on the acting appointee will be documented in writing.

Responsibilities of the Chief Executive Officer

The responsibilities and functions of the Chief Executive Officer are outlined in Section 99 of the Local Government Act 1999. These include:

- Ensuring that policies and lawful decisions of the Council are implemented in a timely and efficient manner.
- Taking responsibility for the day to day operations and affairs of the Council.
- Ensuring that the assets and resources of the Council are properly managed and maintained.
- To exercise, perform and discharge other powers, functions or duties conferred on the Chief Executive Officer by or under the Local Government Act 1999 or other Acts, and to perform other functions lawfully directed by the Council.

The Chief Executive Officer is responsible, amongst other things, for ensuring the Council abides by current laws and regulations that affect its operations in relation to finances, facilities, human resources, investments, provision of services and governance matters.

Legislative Requirements

Section 44 of the Local Government Act 1999 provides that the Council may delegate a power or function vested or conferred under this or another act.

Delegations made by the Council under Section 44 of the Local Government Act 1999 can be made to a Council Committee, a subsidiary of the Council, an employee of the Council, or, an authorised person. Other acts may specify different delegate than the Local Government Act 1999.

A delegation made pursuant to Section 44 of the Local Government Act 1999 is revocable at will and does not prevent the Council from acting in a matter.

There are many powers and functions which are set out in Section 44(3) of the Local Government Act 1999 which the Council cannot delegate. These include the following:

- (a) power to make a by-law or to determine that a by-law applies only within a part or parts of the area of the council;
- (b) power to declare rates or a charge with the character of a rate;
- (c) power to borrow money or to obtain other forms of financial accommodation;
- (d) power to adopt or revise a strategic management plan of the council;
- (da) power to adopt or revise an annual business plan or budget of the council;
- (e) power to approve expenditure of money on works, services or operations of the council not contained in a budget adopted by the council;
- (g) power to approve payment or reimbursement of expenses that may be paid at the discretion of the Council and for which Council has not adopted a formal policy or made specific financial provision;
- (h) power to establish a subsidiary, or to participate in the establishment of a regional subsidiary;
- (i) power to make an application or recommendation, or to report or to give a notice, to the Governor or the Minister, being an application, recommendation, report or notice for which provision is made by or under this or another Act;
- (j) power to fix, vary or revoke a fee under Section 188(1) (d) to (h);
- (k) a power or function excluded from delegation by regulations.

If the Council purports to delegate any of these powers or functions, that delegation would be ineffective. Any action undertaken in reliance on that delegation would be unauthorized, and may result in legal and administrative problems for Council.

Sub-delegations

Section 101 of the Local Government Act 1999 provides that the Chief Executive Officer may delegate or sub-delegate a power or function vested or conferred in or on the Chief Executive Officer under the Local Government Act 1999.

The Chief Executive Officer may also sub-delegate a power or function vested or conferred under other Acts or instruments unless prohibited by the specific Act or instrument.

Delegations Register

Council keeps a record of delegations in a "Delegations Register". The Register contains a record of all powers, functions and duties made by the Council to the Chief Executive Officer in accordance with Section 44 of the Local Government Act 1999.

The Delegations Register also incorporates the sub-delegations made by the Chief Executive Officer to other officers of Council.

Inspection of the Register

A person is entitled to inspect (without charge) the Register of Delegations under Section 44(6) of the Local Government Act 1999 at the principal office of the Council during ordinary office hours.

Delegations Review

The Council may at any time, and must within 12 months after the conclusion of each periodic election, review its suite of delegations.

2. Instrument of Delegation

2A. Statutory Delegations to the Chief Executive Officer

Except where otherwise specified, in the exercise of the powers contained in Section 44 of the Local Government Act 1999 and in accordance with the resolution made by the City of Port Lincoln (“the Council”) on the 15 July 2019 the following powers and functions provided under Sections 2A and 2B of this document are delegated by the Council to the person occupying the office of the Chief Executive of the Council (“the Delegate”) and extend to any person appointed to act in the position of Chief Executive Officer and the delegate is authorised to further delegate these powers and functions in accordance with Section 44 and Section 101 of the Local Government Act 1999 as the delegate sees fit, unless otherwise indicated within this Instrument of Delegation. The delegation made by the Chief Executive Officer in this instrument extends to any person who is appointed to Act in the position of the sub-delegate.

Note:

The column on the right sets out any sub-delegations made by the Chief Executive Officer to officers.

All powers and functions that are to remain with Council are recorded as “NOT DELEGATED” and a power or function that is not sub-delegated and therefore remains with the Chief Executive Officer is recorded as “NOT SUB-DELEGATED”.

Appendix 9 - Instrument of Delegation to the Chief Executive Officer under the Fire and Emergency Services Act 2005 and the Fire and Emergency Services Regulations 2005

In exercise of the powers contained in Section 44 of the Local Government Act 1999 and Section 20 of the Fire and Emergency Services Act 2005, the powers and functions under the Fire and Emergency Services Act 2005 and the Fire and Emergency Services Regulations contained hereunder, are, subject to the conditions, limitations and provisos contained therein, hereby delegated on 15 July 2019 to the person occupying the office of the Chief Executive Officer (and any person appointed to act in that position) and such powers and functions may be delegated by the Chief Executive Officer to an Officer or officers of the Council as the Chief Executive Officer sees fit.

This delegation is for use in respect of Chief Executive Officers (or equivalent) of councils.

2. Some powers and functions are only relevant to:

2.1 councils with areas within a 'fire district'; or

2.2 'rural' councils; or

2.3 councils wholly or partly within a 'bushfire management area'.

3. Under the Act:

3.1 a 'rural council' means a council whose area lies wholly or partially outside a fire district;

3.2 a 'fire district' is an area declared by the South Australian Fire and Emergency Services Commission for the purposes of the operations of the South Australian Metropolitan Fire Service;

3.3 'country' means any area outside a fire district.

3.4 the Governor may divide the State into 'bushfire management areas'.

4. The instrument contains notes in respect of those powers which only apply to certain councils or to certain areas of certain councils. Care should be taken and the instrument carefully reviewed to ensure only those relevant powers are delegated.

5. Councils should note that some powers under the Act may only be delegated to a fire prevention officer. Therefore, it is necessary for some councils to make delegations under the Act to both the chief executive officer and fire prevention officer. See Appendix 9A for delegations to a fire prevention officer.

6. On the basis of the above, some councils may need one or more of the following delegations:

6.1 Delegations to the chief executive officer (this instrument);

6.2 Delegations to a fire prevention officer.

NOTES

7. Conditions or Limitations: conditions or limitations may apply to the delegations contained in this Instrument. Refer to the Schedule of Conditions at the back of this document.

8. Refer to the relevant Council resolution(s) to identify when these delegations were made, reviewed and or amended.

9. In this instrument the following abbreviations have the following meaning:

'SACFS' means the South Australian Country Fire Service.

Appendix 2 - Subdelegation to the Chief Executive Officer under the Road Traffic Act 1961

MADE IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE INSTRUMENT OF GENERAL APPROVAL AND DELEGATION TO COUNCIL DATED 22 AUGUST 2013 FROM THE MINISTER FOR TRANSPORT AND INFRASTRUCTURE

BACKGROUND

1. On 22 August 2013 the Minister for Transport and Infrastructure issued an Instrument of General Approval and Delegation Council (the 'Instrument') containing:

- 1.1 General Approvals by the Minister to the Council in accordance with Section 12 of the Road Traffic Act 1961 (the 'Act') for the purposes of the Act; and
- 1.2 delegations pursuant to Section 11 of the Act, by the Minister to the Council for the purposes of the Act.

This document contains Subdelegations made by the Council to the Chief Executive Officer of the Council, pursuant to the terms of the Instrument. The Instrument contains certain conditions, exceptions and requirements, and this document must be read in conjunction with the Instrument.

Note: Reference should be made to the Minister's Instrument of General Approval and Delegation provided as a separate attachment to this register.
