

Confidential Orders Register

Council and Committee Meetings – 1 July 2019 - Current

Pursuant to Section 90 of the Local Government Act 1999 (the Act) a Council or council committee may order that the public be excluded from attendance at a meeting to the extent (and only to the extent) that the council or council committee considers it to be necessary and appropriate to act in a meeting closed to the public in order to receive, discuss or consider in confidence any information or matter listed in Section 90(3) of the Act.

Council is required to review the confidential orders made pursuant to Section 91(7) of the Act at least once in every year to determine whether the orders to retain documents in confidence will remain in force or be revoked. Revoked orders result in all confidential documents relating to the order being released to the public.
